

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE EASTERN DISTRICT OF NORTH CAROLINA
SOUTHERN DIVISION

No. 7:14-MJ-1217-RJ-1

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA)

v.)	ORDER

ANTHONY JEROME MCLEAN,)
Defendant.)

This matter came before the court today for a preliminary examination on the criminal complaint against Defendant and for a hearing on the government's motion, pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3142(f), to detain Defendant pending further proceedings. The government presented the testimony of William Thomas Francis, Jr., an agent with the Federal Bureau of Investigation. The court also reviewed the pretrial services report, which was prepared by the probation office and provided to the parties in advance of the hearing. Defendant presented no evidence.

The court finds that the credible information presented establishes probable cause to support the criminal complaint. Based on Defendant's waiver of his right to a detention hearing, there is no condition, or combination of conditions, that can be imposed which would reasonably assure Defendant's appearance and/or the safety of another person or the community.

Defendant is therefore committed to the custody of the Attorney General or a designated representative for confinement in a corrections facility separate, to the extent practicable, from persons awaiting or serving sentences or held in custody pending appeal. Defendant shall be afforded a reasonable opportunity to consult privately with defense counsel. On order of United States Court or on request of an attorney for the government, the person in charge of the corrections facility shall deliver Defendant to the United States marshal for a court appearance.

SO ORDERED, the 6th day of January 2015.

Robert B. Jones, Jr.,
United States Magistrate Judge
